PITTSBURGH, PA -- Financial Service Standards, LLC (FSS) captured a Signature Award for its 401k Service Solution™ Plan Sponsor Literature from the Profit Sharing/401(k) Council of America (PSCA). The annual PSCA Signature Awards recognize excellence in plan communication and investment education in 401(k) plans. In determining the winners of the 2008 competition, PSCA placed emphasis on campaigns that achieved measurable results.

"It's an honor to have our plan sponsor literature recognized with a PSCA Signature Award," said Sharon Pivrotto, Vice-President and COO of Financial Service Standards. "We strive to help plan sponsors better understand and meet their ERISA responsibilities. This award recognizes the effectiveness of having a complete, documented process – as well as the efforts of Professional Plan Consultant™ (PPC™) designees throughout the United States who raise the standards by using these tools to help plan sponsors run a more successful plan."

Financial Service Standards won the award in the Communication to Plan Sponsors category for the 401k Service Solution Six-Step ERISA Process, which focused on understanding and documenting plan management compliance. The Six-Step Process was successful in raising the awareness and compliance by plan sponsors that participated in the campaign, measured by an Employer Report Card score average increasing from a C at the beginning of the campaign to an A average at the conclusion of the campaign.
