

10 Reasons You Should Come to Pittsburgh in November

Don Settina, PPC™, AIFA®, CFP®
President and CEO, Financial Service Standards, LLC

- 1 The 401k Service Training Program™ is held at Robert Morris University in November.
- 2 Being able to get your PPC™ credential in just 2 short days.
- 3 Networking, idea-sharing, learning ... and did I say networking?
- 4 Being able to listen to Richard Lynch from Fi360 (headquartered in Pittsburgh) speak about timely fiduciary topics.
- 5 Dinner at the Hyehold Restaurant -- a quaint little castle tucked away in the Pittsburgh airport corridor.
- 6 If you come a day early or stay a day late, you can catch a round of golf with Don Settina at Southpointe Golf Club (watch out, though, his handicap is 2).
- 7 Powerful business-building concepts, business coaching, and sales ideas that have been road-tested and proven to work.
- 8 Being able to leave Pittsburgh with access to a complete, turnkey service process to sell to and service your target market -- retirement plans.
- 9 Duty-free shopping at the Pittsburgh Airport (ok, it's a stretch, I know ...).
- 10 Learning critical ERISA compliance issues and how to help plan fiduciaries -- helping you achieve your 2008 New Year's resolution of making a concerted effort to advance your education and specialize in the retirement plan industry.

Accredited Training. Professional Certification. Business-Building Tools.

If you think you may want to step outside the box and see how the PPC credential and the training provided in the 401k Service Training Program can help you, please visit our website to learn more.

Don't delay -- Our November program is just around the corner. Learn how to get your plans PPC Protected. Find out more about The 401k Service Training Program, the valued PPC Credential, and the Tools that only PPCs have access to.

Visit our website at 401kservicetraining.com or call (412) 977-9304.